KENTUCKY DEMOCRATS.

Proceedings of State Convention at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, KY., May 16.—At 11:25

o'clock p. m. Chairman S. G. Sharp called the convention to order in the new Opera House. E. P. Johnson was nominated for temporary Chairman by W. E. Browder, of Logan county, and he was chosen, there being no other nomination.

The Chairman of each district delegation then announced the delegation of choice for Vice-President and for the three several committees.

The Vice-Presidential choice was:

First district, Myer Well; Second district, J. A. Spaulding; Third district,

I. H. Goodnight; Fourth district,

Willie Carpenter; Fifth district,

George Alexander; Sixth district,

Frederick Meade; Seventh district,

Attila Cox; Eighth district, M. D. Logan;

Ninth district, A. E. Cole; Tenth district, G. M. Adams; Eleventh district, O. H. Waddell.

The district delegates were named and, upon recommendation of the Committee on Permanent Organization, Senator J. C. S. Blackburn was made permanent Chairman, and James E. Stone permanent Secretary.

The committee also reported the following State Central Committee:

W. C. Alford, Lexington, Chairman;

P. P. Johnston, Louisville, John R.

Allen, R. S. Bullock, Fayette; Ben

Johnson, Nelson; Charles J. Helm,

Newport; Chas. H. Long and W. B.

Haldeman, Louisville. For State

Executive Committee: John J.

Kemp, First district; John S. Witttingill, Second; J. D. Hines, Third;

J. S. Wortham, Fourth; J. H. Sherry,

Fifth; Rod Perry, Sixth; W. J. Craft,

Seventh; L. W. McKee, Eighth; M.

Williams, Ninth; John P. Salyers,

Tenth; John T. Duff, Eleventh. It was recommended by the committee that Lexington be made the headquarters of the State Central Committee.

The report and recommendations of the committee were unanimously adopted, and, after a short speech by

Chairman Blackburn, the committee on Resolutions followed the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"The Democrats of Kentucky, reaffirming their allegiance to the principles embodied in previous party platforms, State and National, do especially declare:

"First—Their unqualified confidence in the administration of Grover

Cleveland, President of the United States, and their unflinching devotion to the doctrine laid down in his late annual message to Congress, and they instruct their delegates to the National Democratic Convention to vote as a unit for his re-nomination.

"Second—They regard with exaltation the people under the guise of taxation beyond what may be necessary to defray the legitimate expenses of the Government, honestly and economically administered, as legalized robbery, and the settled policy of the Republican party to subsidize special industries by unjust and oppressive bounties, levied mainly upon the necessaries of life meets with their determined condemnation.

"Third—They endorse the proposal of the Ways and Means Committee

known as the Mills bill as a fair, conservative, and practical measure of revenue reform, and applaud the course of their Representatives in Congress in giving it their unanimous and hearty support.

"Fourth—They deprecate sectional agitation, and denounce the efforts of the Republican party to destroy the autonomy of the several States and concentrate all political power in a centralized government by their repeated interference with State elections and other invasions of their reserved rights, to renew fraternal strife among the people, and to remand a large portion of the Union to the ancient methods of the era of reconstruction.

"Fifth—They cordially endorse the administration of Gov. Buckner as eminently wise, patriotic and statesmanlike and worthy of the commonplace and confidence of the people."

Following are the district delegates, alternates, electors and assistants:

First district—Delegates: Clint Lee and John W. Blue. Alternates:

John T. Deems and Myer Well. Elector: W. M. Smith. Assistant: C. K.

Wheeler.

Second district—Delegates: Robt.

D. Vance, Peter Barry. Alternates:

J. No. Brown, W. P. Baker. Elector:

L. W. Henry. Assistant: R. W. Mc-

Farland, E. E. Hardin.

Third district—Delegates: D. C.

Walker, J. D. Hines. Alternates:

Chas. Eaves, Dr. C. K. Haggard.

The Indians in Kentucky.

It is well for the Press everywhere to open its columns to those subjects that are absorbing the people. This

"Indian Question" as it has heretofore been called (now, no longer a question) is one of the most aggressive of topics, it will not down. A few years ago it was only heard in our Congressional halls, now it boldly confronts you in the warehouse, the counting room, the steamer, the cars, the drawing room of society, the pulpit, yes, everywhere. It has actually become fashionable to belong to an Indian Association, and well has for that lever may open some hearts,

when the humane features of the case would not. All high, low, rich and poor, are in the whirl of excitement to see that poor "Lo" is restored to his old place. The grand revolution began about 9 years ago in Philadelphia.

Some noble women became aroused

(for sheer humanity's sake) to appeal to the Government to stay its inquisitions course in its dealings with its

"wards" as they were generously called. Like the impetuous widow of the Bible, their impetuosity accomplished their purpose. By appeals and petition; a new regime was established. The long history of fraud, injustice, broken treaties, and forced removals, began to change.

As one beautifully defined it, women came with the cause of healing for the nations shameful hurt. Again it was said, "The hands at the helm, are hands that folded, plead most with God." He has brought light of the and the Christian citizen is darkness,

being evolved from the bloody savage.

This transition should have taken place 100 years ago, but to-day justice is better than none at all. Their emancipation dates from the 8th of

Feb. 1887. On that day the grandest act of this century was passed at Washington. This Bill, was offered

(and passed) ceaselessly until its passage by that great philanthropist,

Senator Dawes, of Mass. This gives the Indian his land with individual title, just as we have ours, thus breaking up the tribal relation. This several possession is the open sesame to citizenship, and the power to all of these lands is vested in the President.

It must, and will be a slow work, as to give them these privileges before preparing them for their advancement would be a suicidal policy.

Therefore, it is a rare critical time for our aged brother. We dare not pass by on the other side and leave him to his fate. Am I my brother's keeper? Yes, a thousand times yes.

Every Christian irrespective of creed

Minnesota has instructed for Gresham.

Buffalo Bill has returned from Europe with his wild west show.

The next General Assembly will be held at Chattanooga.

The Proceedings of the Lexington convention can be found on another page.

It cost $50,000 to settle Dr. Standford's estate. It is rather costly for rich men to die.

The Mormons are going to organize a local congregation in Atlanta, a sort of Woman's suffrage move.

We predict that within three weeks from this time the railroad situation will be entirely changed.

We continue to hear nothing but the most flattering comments on Mose West's candidacy for sheriff in the venacular of the horse men "Wiley is on a long trot."

We have no objection to urge against the personnel of the State Central Committee, but we have yet to hear a single good reason why our conventions should be held in Lexington.

The "pennyrite district" got there in the Convention. McKenzie and Hendricks does pretty well, and proves conclusively that whenever we all pull together we can get what we want.

When the Executive Committee meets at Madisonville it will have only one candidate to consider and it had better endorse him and go home. Hurrah for Ellis!

The selection of Mr. R. W. Henry as elector for this district was a happy choice. Mr. Henry is a competent speaker and will make the hills and valleys of the old second ring with the eternal principles of Democracy during the campaign.

The local option law of Michigan has been declared unconstitutional. After the defeat of prohibition in that state last year, the Legislature enacted a general local option law, under which out of some thirty or forty counties that voted on the subject all but three or four went dry.

Mr. W. E. Bourland, who was appointed Republican elector for this district, declines to serve. Mr. Bourland sniffed the danger afar and retired to a place of safety. If the g. o. p. is short of oratorical material we can suggest our young friend John Feland as a suitable lamb for the slaughter.

The Hopkinsville South Kentuckian is a beauty, typographically and otherwise. The editor is filling its columns with choice and interesting matter, as he is so capable of doing—Bowling Green Democrat.

We can but be truly grateful for the kindness of our contemporary knowing as we do the soundness of his judgment and ability.

Reports continue to pour in of the popularity of Mose West, our candidate for Sheriff. He seems to be just the man to fill the public demands at this time. Already a number of influential Republicans, who condemn ring rule and are determined to stand it no longer, have pledged him their support, and the assurances of success come to him so frequently that defeat seems impossible.

It is rumored that Reuben A. Miller, of Breckenridge county, is to be appointed State Inspector and Examiner, the new office created by the Legislature. The duties of the Inspector are simply overwhelming. He is supervisor of all of our charity institutions, and has under his control the banking establishments of the State. He should be a physician, an expert on insanity, an accountant, a lawyer, a financier, an educator and everything else. If he is slightly off in any of these points he may seriously interfere with affairs and make his office a curse instead of a blessing. We have said it, and we say it again, that there is a man in Hopkinsville who can come as near filling this place as any man in the State, and if the Governor will drop us a postal card we'll tell him his name.

The Elkon Progress voices the true state of the case in the following: "Mr. Jas. B. Camp, manager of the Festival, is being very severely criticised for the manner in which he treated the press in the assignment of seats. In many instances these gentlemen were so situated as not to be able to either see or hear the performance, and some who held season tickets, left after the first night and never went back. Mr. Camp owes his success largely in this instance to the press and he certainly could and should have made better provisions for them."

Of course Mr. Camp did not expect to have use for the press again soon, and consequently looked upon them as "far seeing" individuals, not taking it into consideration that they had given his local choice positions among reading matter, and that he could have been equally as considerate and given them choice seats, rather than placed them in positions where field glasses and telephones would have rendered valuable assistance.

ELLIS WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

(Henderson Journal.)

Numerous possible complications which might have, and threaten to exist in the Congressional race, have the appearance of having finally adjusted themselves, with a result entirely favorable to the candidate from Davies county. Mr. Laffoon's last letter in reply to a petition from friends in the district asking him to enter the race is an emphatic reiteration of his previous assertions that he did not desire re-election and would not be a candidate again under any circumstances. Dr. Norman, after a survey from a home standpoint of the situation, of which he could form only an approximate judgment, while still in Frankfort, likewise declines to stand for Congressional honors. Mr. McKenzie has wavered in his determination until his very indecision has lost for him the remotest possibility of success, even if he subsequently becomes a candidate. But it is not believed that he will offer and many of his warmest supporters have pledged themselves to the remaining candidate on the track—Capt. W. T. Ellis, of Davies county. Not only have many voters pledged themselves to Capt. Ellis, but nearly every paper in the district has asserted that it will advocate his claims against all and any new-comer. It looks as though he has won the race at the onset without having to display his mettle and staying qualities under the spur of opposition. The race must be regarded as made up, and while men can at any time be found willing, for the sake of an exciting contest, to enter some ambitious politician into the fight by arousing in him false hopes of success, the district as a whole is well pleased with the situation, recognizing as it does Davies county's claims to preference and the peculiar fitness of her brilliant son to bear the Democratic banner. Capt. Ellis need groom himself now, not to fight for his individual battle, for his success in that is assured, but to train his battery of eloquence and logic upon the Republican camp, and insure a big Democratic victory at the coming Presidential election.

THE STRAIGHT OF IT.

In the reports of the convention at Lexington to the Courier-Journal Mr. R. D. Vance was placed in an unjust light before the public. Below is a correct statement pertaining to the action of that gentleman in the convention:

It was obviously fair for the convention to leave the headquarters of the committee for another term at Lexington, although it was apparent that from a large number of delegates there was a reluctance to assent to this; so when the Committee on Permanent Organization reported and named Lexington as the headquarters, and Mr. Alford as the Chairman, Mr. Vance, of Henderson, in obedience to a demand from his end of the State, moved to substitute Louisville as the place, and John B. Castleman as the Chairman of the Central Committee. The reception of this motion by the convention gave unmistakable evidence of its popular favor. Mr. Castleman quickly obtained the recognition of the chair, and protested politely but firmly against the proposed change, declined to permit his name to be used in opposition to the committee's report, and explained that he had informed members of the committee that he could not accept the position, and exacted a promise from them that the Committee on Permanent Organization should not report his name, and appeared in behalf of the organization as the committee had agreed. With the explanation made, Mr. Vance withdrew his motion.

The Cadiz Telephone, commenting on one of the New Era's railroad editorials, says: "If the building of the much desired road by the L. & N. Co. can be accomplished as our worthy neighbor seems to think, by the citizens of Hopkinsville and Cadiz merely giving their consent, we obligate all to secure the consent of every man, woman and child in this burg. But our understanding down this way is that it requires money, and a good deal of it, to get one of these 'souless corporations' to entertain a proposition to build a railroad." The Telephone is about correct. A thing that is not worth working for and paying for is generally not worth having. We do not believe in prodigality in subsidizing railroads, but when a community is pressed for outlets it is wise to identify itself with such enterprises by a liberal subscription.

A special from Marion, says: The town Trustees have ordered an election to be called for June 12 to vote for the proposition to issue $5,000 in bonds for the Princeton, Marion and Ohio River Railroad. The proposition, it is claimed, will carry by a large majority. If it does, work will then immediately begin on the road at this place, toward the Ohio river, at which point Mr. Parker, of the Cairo Short Line, agrees to meet this road. The Ohio Valley railroad, running from Henderson to Princeton, will, it is claimed, extend their road to Nashville, Tenn. This summer, and the building of the Princeton, Marion and Ohio River, and the extension of the Cairo Short Line to meet it, will place St. Louis in closer communication by rail with Nashville, Tenn., by at least sixty-five miles.

Judge Hargis, of Louisville, collected a fee of $20,000 and another of $10,000, the other day. He is barricading against the proverbial wolf.

THE MILL'S BILL.

The great tariff debate has closed, one of the grandest fights against the robber barons on record. Kentucky was ably represented in the contest, as the speeches of Carlisle, Breckinridge and Stone will attest. In order that our readers may apprehend clearly the features of the Mills bill, we append the following synopsis of its provisions:

"The Mills bill proposes to cut off, in round numbers, $78,000,000 of the surplus revenue. Of this amount $54,000,000 is taken from the tariff and $24,000,000 from internal taxes on tobacco. It adds to the free list flax, hemp, jute, salt, tin plate, wool and a few other articles. The present average rate of the tariff on dutiable goods is 47-10 per cent. The Mills bill would leave it at 40 per cent. The present average rate on articles affected by the bill is 54-16 per cent. The proposed rate would leave it on these articles at 33-36 per cent. The schedules of luxuries in the present tariff are left untouched. All the reductions are made on the essentials of manufacturers or the necessities of the people. If the champions of protected monopolies shall defeat this moderate revision they will see some 'tariff-smashing' in earnest next time."

TOBACCO NEWS.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

The market this week continued steady and strong on basis of last week's improvement. In Burley, every thing above common lugs has been active and competition lively. Green River styles are still quite popular, and are bringing generally satisfactory prices. In dark kinds the situation is about as stated last week. A slight speculation feeling occasionally shows itself in the more useful grades of regie goods, and is sustaining a very healthy tone for these kinds. The lower grades of dark tobacco, nondescript and trash, are still out of favor and neglected. The continued reports through the country of failure of plant beds and devastation by bugs and cut worms, is having the effect of strengthening the views of holders, and perhaps makes them a little stiffer in their holding. This is indicated by the exceedingly light receipts and offerings. Fairly good rains are reported during the week throughout Kentucky and Tennessee, affording a fair to a good setting season.—Home Journal.

Going West.

The general interest that has been taken in the opening of the Montana Indian Reservation is shown by the large numbers of people who have already gone to Great Falls to investigate the mineral and agricultural resources of that wonderful country. The low excursion rate announced by C. H. Warren, Gen. Pass. Agent of the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway, makes the expense of exploring this country merely nominal, and will undoubtedly result in a still larger number following.

Educational Convention.

The district Educational Convention met at Eddyville Friday night, Prof. C. H. Dietrich presiding. The exercises were of an unusually interesting character, but the teachers of the district failed to attend in large numbers. Great surprise was expressed at this negligence of county superintendents and teachers. Papers of high literary merit were read by Miss Nora Stark and Mrs. Rosa Bramham, and the addresses by McHenry Rhoades, of the Hartford Herald, and Prof. Roark were strong and spirited appeals in behalf of education. The recitations by Miss Stark delighted the large audiences, and she was repeatedly encored. Prof. Dietrich is one of the most laborious and efficient district presidents in the State.

Gov. Buckner appointed as Railroad Commissioners, Hon. Ignatius A. Spaulding, of Union county, for the First Superior Court district; Judge W. B. Fleming, of Louisville for the Second district, and Hon. John T. Hager, of Ashland, for the third district. Mr. Spaulding is the only one of the old Board appointed. These gentlemen will now proceed to make a tour of the state and hear complaints which it is not in their power to remedy, a kind of itinerant argument against Legislatures in general and the last one in particular.

The Tate defalcation grew as follows: January, 1880, $29,339.23; January, 1882, $58,972.20; January, 1884, $118,268.14; January, 1886, $99,247.50; March 20, 1888, $247,028.50. The decrease from 1883 to 1886 is to be accounted for in certain large checks paid directly to the Treasurer and for which he did not notify the Auditor in time to enter a charge against him before the settlement.—Inquirer.

There is nothing more gratifying than to note the prosperity of a brother of the press, and the enlarged appearance of the Elkon Progress, under the management of Loving Gaines, has especially impressed us. The general appearance of the paper is also better. The citizens of Elkon have reason to be proud of the Progress.

The young men went to the front in the Lexington convention, and a sprightly body of fellows it was. When the famous, battle-scarred veterans come to lay off the armor, it is pleasing to think that trained fighters with the full vigor of young manhood upon them will be ready to step into their places.

The man who had "M. R. Granahan" substituted on Tate's I. O. U. list for his real name, has achieved more notoriety than if he had let the thing alone. When it becomes generally known who he is, he will be pointed at by the small boys as he passes by as a museum curiosity.

Reader, did you ever pause for a moment to consider the vast amount of reading matter you get in a single copy of the South Kentuckian which costs you less than 2 cents a copy? If you have not, do so and we think you will be warranted in coming right along and contributing two dollars more for a yearly supply, to be given in broken doses, twice a week—Tuesdays and Fridays, and paper stopped when out, unless otherwise ordered. You actually get more local, editorial and general news than from any other paper published in this part of the State, and while our list is rapidly increasing, come forward if you are not already a subscriber, and let us enroll your name on it, thus adding to the mighty number.
